ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. By way of this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India the petitioner-detenu has brought under challenge the detention order dated 1/11/1996 rendered by the respondent no. 2 u/S. 3(1) of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (Act No. 16 of 1985) (for short 'the PASA Act').

2. The grounds on which the impugned order of detention has been passed appear at Annexure-B to the petition. They inter-alia indicate that the petitioner by himself and with the aid of his associates has been indulging in criminal and anti-social activities of committing thefts of electronics and cash amounts resulting in fear in the mind of people about the security of their movables. The Detaining Authority has placed reliance upon one offence of 1993 registered in Amraiwadi Police Station, one offence of 1995 registered in Bapunagar Police Station inter-alia under sections 457, 458, 380, 114 of the IPC. Third offence of 1996 has been registered under section 25/1/A.B.A. of the Arms Act. The particulars of such offences have been set out in the grounds of detention.

3. It has been recited that the detenu's anti-social activity tends to obstruct maintenance of public order and in support of such conclusion statements of four witnesses have been relied upon. They speak about two incidents dated 15/10/1996 and 10/10/1996 indicating beating of concerned witnesses in public resulting in fear in the mind of people.

4. It is on the aforesaid incidents that the detaining authority has passed the impugned order of detention while also relying upon the aforesaid cases lodged against the petitioner. The petitioner has been stamped as a 'dangerous person' within the meaning of section 2(c) of the PASA Act.

5. I have heard the learned advocate for the petitioner and the learned A.G.P. for the State. The petitioner has challenged the aforesaid order of detention on number of grounds inter-alia on the ground that there is no material to indicate that the detenu's conduct would show that he is habitually engaged in the anti-social activities which can be said to be prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. This is a case of individual incidents affecting law and order and in the facts of the case would not amount to leading to conclusion that the same would affect public order. Reliance has been placed on the following decision of the Apex Court :-

Mustakmiya Jabbarmiya Shaikh v/s. M.M. Mehta, C.P. reported in 1995 (2) G.L.R. 1268, where the incidents were quoted in paras. 11 and 12 of the citation and it has been submitted that facts of the present case run almost parallel to the facts before the Apex Court in Mustakmiya's case (supra).

6. In reply, the learned A.G.P. for the State has relied upon a decision in the case of Mrs. Harpreet Kaur Harvinder Singh Bedi v/s. State of Maharashtra and anr. reported in AIR 1992 SC 979. However, the ratio in Harpreet Kaur's decision (supra) can hardly have any application to the facts of the petitioner's case. I have gone through the papers concerning the registered offences and the facts of the case, which can hardly be said to have affected public order.

7. There are other grounds of challenge levelled against the impugned order of detention. However, in view of the fact that the petitioner would succeed on the strength of decision of Mustakmiya's case (supra), it is not necessary to deal with the other grounds. Hence, following order is passed :-

8. The impugned order of detention is hereby quashed and set aside. The petitioner-detenu - Anilkumar alias Pintu Bhagvatiprasad Sharma shall be forthwith set at liberty, if he is not required to be detained in any other case. Rule made absolute accordingly. D.S.P.
